FINAL PROGRAMME

The Caribbean - constructed not as 'distant' but constructed as the origin of the Western world.

a place of 'inspiration' - the New World, a fantastic place - of nations, hurricanes, typhoons, sea serpents, magic islands, tropical erotic beauty, tropical luxuriance - gold, riches, the place of 'the primitive' - the American 'mythology' for the the rest of the world - the construction of the myth of the 'cannibal' the splitting - perpetual threats of dangerous cannibal.

The place open to greed, exploration
- the 'open frontier' where the explorers, pirates, privateers, could practice 'beyond the reach of the law' war, piracy, buccannery, the dregs of society

> The European/inter-European encounter.
- Not just place made the purveyor of 'the west'

The way the enclosures of Europe were 'played out' in the Caribbean, as if it were an empty prize to be seized by anyone - such as to have the native peoples watched, were decimated, driven back into the forest by the 'west's voracious appetite for plunder. The 'war' of conquest & colonization & possession, exploration
"primitive accumulation"

The decimated land - emptied of people, past, traditions & 'filled' by history. 'Only here is to escape from history in the shaping according to the balance of historical forces. The present shaped by the past.

The 'mosaic': The blend of cultures, languages, traditions, political systems, class systems de decimas per education etc. These 'origins' were, but forced into to adapt to the new place - adaptation - to 'holding' traditions to some extent, and to mix - hybridization, of blending, of the creative evolution

Colonization - genocide
The architecture of colonization presence - but no layer 'pure'.

where they came from, such the

A people, certainly rich, when the tributaries of world culture were so abundant - but in its own unique, brilliantly beautiful location. But fragmented by their history which has now finally begun to produce something unique new - having known past & future (the identity problem).
